Dear Readers,

We are very fortunate in Barton Mills that so many things are going on - and in having so many people who help and/or organise things. This includes those who help by distributing your Barton Miller and I offer a big "thank you" to those who undertake this regular job (not forgetting the other members of our production team, of course!)

You will see in this issue an appeal for someone to take over a distribution route. If you consider walking is good for your health, why not walk "with a purpose" on 10 days in the year? Please help if you can.

Yours sincerely Joy Willis.

Copy for the June issue to me by 20th May please.

Vicar's Letter

Dear Friends

Lent and Easter is a busy time in church, so parishes generally see a mass exodus of vicars afterwards as they take the traditional 'post-Easter break'. It can be quite fun to pass a bit of time in airport departure lounges or motorway service stations trying to spot the off-duty cleric, often recognisable by unfortunate choices of hat, sandals with socks and an earnest look they can't quite shake off.

I too took some time out after Easter and headed across the channel to France, doing my best not to look too earnest. For me, a good holiday involves being able to get away from masses of people, and having lovely scenery to look at. So on this occasion, we found a remote cottage made from an old stone shepherd's hut high in the hills and far from the nearest neighbour. Around us were lavender fields, olive groves and woods and we could sit all day listening to cuckoos and admiring the wild flower meadow in front of the house. A little slice of heaven.

Part of the fun was that the house was so rustic: everything in the kitchen and bathroom was made from rough-hewn stone, as were the bedside tables. All the furniture was carefully 'distressed'. (Lawrence's comment that it was rather like the Flintstones' house didn't go down all that well with the proud owner). It has to be said that the rustic look did extend to quite a bit of dust and cobwebs, but because I was on holiday, I actually enjoyed sprucing the place up a bit. The pleasure of being away lies partly in the differentness of it all, a break from routine. Even finding a scorpion in the cupboard felt like an adventure.

For me though, there always comes a point towards the end of the holiday when I start to get restless. My thoughts turn to my own cosy bed and fireside, my friendly dog and cats, normal food and a proper cuppa. Just like Mole in 'The Wind in the Willows' I feel the tug of many invisible little hands pulling me in one direction ..."Home!"

It's sometimes said that our real home is heaven, and we will never be completely content until we find ourselves there. CS Lewis, the writer of the Narnia stories, reckoned that we love home because it reminds us of heaven, and when we get there we will recognise it immediately as the place we have been unconsciously longing for all our lives.

Whatever your thoughts on heaven, I hope you too have been able to rest over Easter and that you too are enjoying all the many pleasures of home.

BARTON MILLS BAPTIST CHURCH

I am very fortunate to have worked at the nearby airbase for 57 years and during that time I have seen many changes in the way we operate. Technology has reached an all time high and we wonder what they can do next to upgrade the system. However, there have been times during those years when the communications systems have not worked and the service provider has been called to investigate.

Our lives today seem to be controlled by hi-tech equipment, however, when we need to contact a utility company or purchase some insurance, we need plenty of time to sit down and push buttons. I read the following article recently confirming this statement: Someone needed to make a phone call to an insurance company. First came the busy signals – for an entire day! Next came a recorded message followed by music, occasionally interrupted by a voice that said, “Our lines are still busy. Please hold, or hang up and try again.” Finally they got through but this led to a complicated set of instructions: For policy information, press 1. For new coverage, press 2. To make a claim, press 3. To talk to an agent, press 4 - they chose the last option. A recording said he was out of the office and told him to press the pound (#) key. The same voice repeated the same options. They finally hung up. Sound familiar?

Thank God there is no such thing as a prayer runaround. He’s not “on demand” to do as we ask, but He is always “on call” to hear our prayers and provide an answer. On 15 May, Whit Sunday, we shall be reminded again of the availability of the Holy Spirit who is “standing in” for our Saviour who ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God and is interceding for us. He has promised never to leave us nor forsake us. He listens to our petitions and prayers and His line is never busy.

As Christians we believe that wherever we are God hears us when we pray, not because we deserve it but because Christ has opened the way for us to talk directly to the Father. Psalm 145 v18 says “The Lord is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth”. With that assurance we can come confidently to God in prayer, knowing we will never be turned away.

PRAYER IS AN OPEN LINE TO HEAVEN

Our services remain the same: Bible Study at 7.30p.m. on Thursdays (Call 01638-713892 for Location) and Sunday School and Bible Study on Sundays at 11a.m, or the Worship Services at 3p.m. and 6.30p.m. Why not join us at one of these events, you will be made most welcome.

The Annual Parish Meeting took place on Wednesday 20th April. Both the Parish Council and I were really pleased to see such a good turnout from the parishioners. We hope in years to come even more people will attend and take full advantage of this annual meeting of the Parish to exchange information and provide positive input regarding the future direction of the Parish. Overall it was a very positive and engaging meeting.

ENGLISH AS THE OFFICIAL EURO LANGUAGE

Adapted by Brian Crowder from an old article

To encourage Britain to stay in the EU, the European Commission has just announced proposals whereby English would become the language of the EU rather than German, which was the other possibility. As part of the negotiations, German diplomats feel that English spelling has some room for improvement so, in the first year "s" will replace the soft "c". Certainly this will make the sivil servants jump with joy. The hard "c" will be dropped in favour of the "k". This should klear up konfursion and keyboards can have one less letter.

There will be growing public enthusiasm in the second year when the troublesome "ph" will be replaced with "f". This will make words like fotograf 20% shorter.

In the third year, public akseptanse of the new spelling kan be ekspekted to reach the stage where more komplikated changes are possible. Governments will enkorage the removal of double letters, which have always ben a deterrent to akurate speling. Also, al wil agre that the horrible mes of the silent "e"s in the language is disgraseful and they should go away.

By the fourth year, people wil be reseptive to steps such as replasing "th" with "z" and "w" with "v". During ze fifz year, ze unesesary "o" kan be dropd from vords containing "ou" and similar changes vud of kors be aplid to ozer kombinations of leters.

After zis fifz yer, ve vil haf a reli sensibl riten styl zen zer vil be no mor trubl or difikultis und evrivun vil find it zo ezi to undschtand ech ozer. Ze drem vil finali kum tru. Und sune orl Yerope vil spreaken Germ-lish.

Barton Mills 100 Club Chairman's Annual Report - Apr 2016

2015 was a good year in many ways, with good funds and most requests for money met.

The committee and I find it disappointing that it has been assumed that we are here for anything, at any cost, so I feel I should make it clear that the 100 Club is to help clubs and organisations within Barton Mills, to buy equipment etc. that they need.

We were asked to make a contribution to the Parish Council to complete the path across to Mildenhall and, while I agree this needs doing, it is not what we are here for. The people of Barton Mills pay into the 100 Club, they also pay council tax, which is where money for the path should come from. Also the path is used by people from surrounding villages and Mildenhall, not just Barton Mills.

We also paid for some signs which are kept at The Bell pub for general use of the people of Barton Mills. We agreed to this on the understanding that the landlord of The Bell announced their general village use in the Barton Miller. This was not done, so we were let down there.

Having got that off my chest, I would like to thank Janette Miller and Charlie Peachey for their hard work during this year, and all the collectors for their collecting every month and also all the members of the 100 Club for their contributions.

We look forward to another successful year in 2016

Thank you

At this month's meeting we were treated to some impressive music and dance demonstrations by the Haughley Hoofers.

A form of Morris Dancing with musical accompaniment, the Haughley Hoofers clog dancing was enjoyed by all, especially the "have a go" participation by our enthusiastic members. It just might be that the Haughley Hoofers may be gaining some new members!

INSPIRING WOMEN

MRS MARGARET JENKINSON

It is with sadness that we record the death at the age of 98, of Mrs MARGARET JENKINSON. Due to her final years being overshadowed by debilitating illness, she may not be known to many of our more recent residents, but during her active years she was a highly regarded member of our community.

In addition to her generous personal hospitality, she kindly lent her home and grounds for all manner of corporate events; family occasions; meetings; quiet days; weddings; various fundraising events (not least raising some thousands of pounds for The Children's Society); coffee mornings; afternoon teas and so on.....never minding any disturbance to herself. Many reflective and happy hours were enjoyed at "Dejoo" by so many.

May she rest in peace.

THE PRESERVATION TRUST CORNER

Welcome to the regular new page for the Trust, where we hope not just to keep you reminded of current events but also to share snippets from the history of the Church.

Chippenham Fire

From the Barton Mills Parish Magazine of March, 1899:

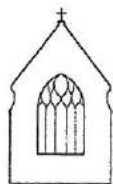

“On Sunday, February 26th, collections were made at the morning and evening services in the Parish Church, on behalf of the sufferers by the late fire at Chippenham. Offerings to the amount of £3 5s. 9d. were made, and consisted of the following coins - 3 half-crowns, 3 florins, 13 shillings, 47 sixpences, 9 threepennies, 133 pence, and 58 half pence. This kind sympathy on the part of Barton Mills, has been gratefully acknowledged by the Vicar of Chippenham on behalf of his poor parishoners.”

This appears to be in regard to a fire in the village (not the church, which has itself seen terrible fires) of Chippenham in February of 1899. A local history of Chippenham online notes a fire started at a small farm in the centre of the village, which resulted in much of that part of the village being destroyed. It seems Barton Mills was pleased to help its neighbour, but I'm not sure why such a detailed breakdown of coinage was needed! An extra accountability measure, perhaps...
