Dear Readers,

November seems to be a month of "remembering". 31st October was "Hallowe'en - but who remembers the meaning of the word? "E'en" is the "eve" of the next day - 1st November which used, in times past, to be known as Hallows Day or All Souls Day, when we remember with love the good souls who have 'gone before' - and not celebrate it as though it were a festival of the darker side of things.

The 5th of November, Bonfire Night is often marked by wonderful firework displays and not always on the actual day. From my childhood, I remember the chanting of the rhyme - "Remember, remember the 5th of November, Gunpowder, Treason and Plot etc. but few think of the historical significance when watching delightful patterns of coloured lights.

Of course, our big Remembrance comes later in the month, which does have a more sombre side to it (this year, Sunday 13th November - see later pages) and many can still remember the trials and sacrifices of war. May we learn from this Remembrance.

Copy for the December/January double issue to me before 20th November please.

May your personal remembrances be happy ones

Yours sincerely Joy Willis

10.45am Remembrance Ceremony by the Peace Garden

A non-denominational ceremony at the Peace Garden by the Village Hall, to which everyone is invited. We shall observe the two minutes' silence, the names of those from Barton Mills who died in the two World Wars will be read out, and poppy wreaths will be laid by Village Representatives.

Everyone is invited, by the Parish Council, to come into the Village Hall after the ceremony for refreshments.

“We will remember them”

AUTUMN FAIR, Saturday 15th October

The Harvest Festival decorations in the church made a lovely background to the Autumn Fair. Cheerful stalls, with lots of Christmas cards on sale to help funds for St Nicholas' Hospice, and other charity displays, gave plenty to look at, as did the colourful display of Val's 'Fine Things'.

The Friendly Doll's name was correctly chosen as FRED, so he is now in his new home!

Last, but not least, the refreshments, with delicious cakes, were much enjoyed.

Correction and Apology

In the 'Dear Readers' item on page 2, there is an error. It should read 1st November All Saints Day (which followed on 2nd Nov. by All Souls Day).

It was necessary to get the printing done early this month and the cover section had gone to press before I had a chance to amend it.

Sincere apologies - Joy Willis

BARTON MILLS BAPTIST CHURCH

During the month of November we set aside the 11th day to give thanks to God for all those men and women who sacrificed so much during the two World Wars and other conflicts since. We remember them with gratitude as it gave each one of us the relative peace we enjoy in our country today. Sadly, there is so much upheaval in the world today, it is difficult for us to understand what peace really is. I was a “war baby” so knew very little of the horrors of World War II which claimed 35 million lives. We ask the question why are we are still seeing bombings and shootings and destruction of nations? We only have to read our newspapers and turn on our TVs to see continued conflict in much of the Middle East, so many people around the globe are searching for a free and civilized existence. It’s especially touching when we see so many civilians, including hundreds of children, killed or injured on a daily basis.

Men and women who fight for their country are to be honored with gratitude. We must also remember that any peace secured by guns can never be permanent, that can only come when the Prince of Peace rules the nations. But He must be enthroned in our hearts now. Peace is available to all who believe in Christ. Not only can we be at peace with God, but we can have the peace of God firmly settled in our hearts. He brings us an inner peace that comes from trust in God through Christ. It is a peace with God—something that even those who have faced the terrors of war can experience. Jesus tells us in John 14 v 27, “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you.” One day when Christ returns, there will be worldwide peace. But for now, peace on earth comes to one person at a time. Do you have that peace?

Oh the peace I find in Jesus, Peace no power on earth can shake

Peace that makes the Lord so precious, Peace that none from me can take

TRUE PEACE IS NOT THE ABSENCE OF WAR BUT THE PRESENCE OF GOD

We give you a warm welcome to attend any of the services at the Chapel, Bible Study at 7.30p.m. on Thursday (check for location, 01638-713892) and Sunday School/Bible Study at 11a.m, followed by Sunday Services at 3p.m. and 6.30p.m.

Are you interested in PRISON VISITING?

Highpoint Prison is in need of a few volunteers to visit prisoners.

The prisoners who ask for visitors are usually people who have no family or the family live too far away to visit or the family just don't visit. The purpose of visiting is simply to talk with the person and offer non-judgemental friendship. Visitors cannot act on behalf of prisoners in any way.

You would join a team of eleven existing visitors and receive training. The Prison Chaplaincy runs the Visiting Programme but there is no religious element to visiting. Proselytising is forbidden. I have been visiting at Highpoint for fifteen years. It can be rewarding and also frustrating but it is invariably worthwhile.

Highpoint is about fifteen miles from Mildenhall and travel expenses are paid. It is an all male prison. If you are interested please contact me by phone or email and we can have a chat to see if you would like to investigate further.

Meeting report Oct 2016.

This month we were entertained by Mandy with her "new image for you"
The use of a scarf from the shoulder reveals your body shape, and we discovered that a rectangular shaped person always has great legs!
Similarly the neat hour glass should always wear thin stripes, and the positioning of a belt shows off the slimmest part of your body.

After our speaker`s illuminating talk on body shape the ladies were split into groups and each group chose one of it`s members to be a model and with the aid of coloured bin bags, sellotape and scissors set about dressing their model. The noise levels increased in each group as they became more enthused. After a flurry of coloured plastic being shaped and attached our models did their parade on the cat walk and a winner was chosen.

An hilarious evening, and all took part with gusto.

Based on Ronald Blythe's 1969 book of the same name, Akenfield was filmed by Sir Peter Hall in Charsfield and neighbouring villages. Tom (Garrow Shand) is a young farmer who lives in Akenfield, a small village in England. In 1974, Tom attends his grandfather's funeral and finds himself questioning his oppressive family history and his role within it. Peggy Cole, now 80, played the Dulcie Rouse - the mother of the film's central character Tom. She said: "It showed how times were hard and people forget today, that years ago we relied on the farmer to grow all we eat and that houses were poor with no electric or running water". Safer Neighbourhood Team

SAFETY on the A11

The County Council and Highways England are developing plans to improve the safety of the A11 junctions in BARTON MILLS.

In the longer term, the possibility has been revived of a Fiveways bypass running to the east of the current line of the road. However, this work would not take place for at least another 10 years.

Are you a Good Neighbour?

Following the meeting held in October, a small group is continuing to explore the possibility of setting up a Good Neighbour Scheme here.
